SUBJECT:

Draft Fiscal Year 1984 Intelligence
Authorization Bill

REFERENCE:

Your Memo, dated 26 October 1982, re
Same Subject

Thanks for your note on our draft Authorization Bill and Legislative Program. I am, of course, always interested in knowing what the State Department is up to in the area of allowances and benefits. However, we no longer have to worry about keeping up with State by submitting legislation to parallel benefits which they achieve. Section 501 of the fiscal year 1982 Intelligence Authorization Act amended section 4 of the CIA Act to give the DCI authority to pay "allowances and benefits comparable to the allowances and benefits authorized to be paid to members of the Foreign Service under chapter 9 of Title I of the Foreign Service Act of 1980 or any other provision of law." Thus, since December 4, 1981, the Agency has been in a position to administratively adopt virtually any allowance and benefit paid to members of the Foreign Service.
